MILGEM

Maddalena Industria Lavorazione Graniti e Marmi.

Since 1735 Maddalena's family has a tradition in the art of working marble and is a historical name on stone industry. Over the years Maddalena's family is proud to have contributed to the construction or restoration of the most famous Italian monuments, such as The "Altare della Patria" in Rome, or Piazza Duomo in Milano or, more recently, Piazza Scala and its famous theater.

Today MILGEM is a modern and dynamic company, able to combine the well-established tradition of craftsmanship with the most advanced industrial technologies currently applied to the processing of marble, granite an every kind of natural material.

The production site - 12.000 square meters - is located close to Bergamo.
